

Trinity Outreach Projects & Impact by Priority Area

Food Insecurity (and other Emergency Assistance) Projects	Financial Support from Trinity	In-Kind Support from Trinity	Volunteer Activity from Trinity participants
Franklin Food Pantry fed over 8,000 people in the past fiscal year	$500 a month (increased this year after 20+ years at $300 per month) Trinity funds fed an estimated 756 families last year	Trinity Food Wagon (peanut butter, jelly, canned chicken & tuna, new drive this year; data to be tracked for the future)	1 Trinity attender packs food bags weekly; a need for 2 persons to deliver food to especially vulnerable seniors (Travis Pecot is FW project leader)
Elder Care Community Council of Franklin County (ECCC) provided approximately 25,000 meals to seniors last year	$300 a month (increased this year after nearly 3 years at $100 per month) Trinity funds provide almost fifteen hundred meals this year; this year an Emergency Assistance Fund was established ($1,000) to be used for emergency shelter, heating/cooling, medical, and personal supplies for seniors	100-120 home-baked treats every week; juice collected in Food Wagon (recent initiative); cleaning supplies donated by members at New Year's	2 Trinity members/attenders deliver meals; 18 Trinity volunteers participate in the "Cookie Ministry" (Connie Finneran is the project leader) Steve Watkins and Susie Wagoner are Outreach Committee point persons for the ECCC
Backpack Buddies of Franklin County served approximately 260 kids last year, providing bags of weekend food	$200 a month (first half of 2023) plus designated donations and donation jar collection	Some food for kid's backpacks donated in past years; cash requested this year	17 volunteers were assigned to packing in the Spring; new storage facility reduced need for volunteers this Fall (Martha Harris, Outreach point person)
Big Bend Hospice		Trinity collected over 200 bottles of nutritional supplement for needy hospice patients last year	Drive held 2 times last year; this year, one larger Lenten Drive is planned based on conversations with Hospice staff (Penny Marler, Outreach point person)

Education Projects	Financial Support from Trinity	In-Kind Support from Trinity	Volunteer Activity from Trinity participants
Franklin County School, the largest school in the county, serving pre-K through 12 th grade	Trinity Outreach Award: new computers for graduating seniors attending college or vocational program (up to $2,000) $500 for literacy projects, including Volunteer Reader Program $200 credit at Penny's Worth for FCS Clothes Closet supplies	Several clothes racks from Penny's Worth stock	Committee reviews applications and makes recommendations (for more information, see Martha Harris, Myrtis Wynn &amp; Susie Wagoner) 17 Trinity Reader Volunteers, schedule sign-ups and training coming soon! (Penny Marler, Outreach Committee point person) Need a point person for FCS Clothes Closet and Penny's Worth
Ed Corps, Franklin Promise's nontraditional high school program with conservation-based vocational training	Trinity Outreach Award: computers or other educational technology recommended by Ed Corps staff (up to $500)		For more information Penny Marler, Outreach chair
Franklin Education Foundation, only community-based education foundation in Franklin County	Currently exploring/developing funding sources for Jump Start and Take Stock scholarships through the Foundation	Provide a platform for dissemination of Foundation information; coordinate resources	Cliff & Denise Butler, Foundation leaders (Myrtis Wynn, Outreach community at large member, is a mentor for Take Stock in Children)
Back-to-School Backpack Drive	$110 designated for backpack purchases	Collected 75 backpacks	Jo Branch & Chris Presnell, Outreach Committee point persons
Angel Tree Christmas Project	$732 in designated funds available	At least 20 cards will be available on our satellite FCS Christmas tree for gift purchases	Bob and Susan Pruitt are the Outreach project leaders

Environmental Stewardship Projects	Financial Support from Trinity	In-Kind Support from Trinity	Volunteer Activity from Trinity Participants
Community Clean-Up Initiative for Apalachicola	$1,000 designated for a community clean-up event	To be determined	Jason Carter and Stephen Pecot are spearheading a possible event on April 20 (Saturday before Earth Day) and hope to involve local congregations
Franklin's Promise Ed Corps Scholarships	$2,000 for two, one-year scholarships to senior Ed Corps students engaging in hand's-on conservation learning		For more information, see Jason Carter or Penny Marler
Environmental Stewardship Banner	$450 for new banner on Environmental Stewardship; $450 for a replacement Lenten banner (wear and tear on 3-year old banner)	A strategic external wall as the "blank canvas" for seasonal outreach to the larger community	Martha Harris, Kay Carson, and Stephen Pecot to design; Kirk Hadaway and Penny Marler hang banners but are looking for other able-bodied assistants.