It is with great pleasure that we will be welcoming, on the first Sunday in August, the Reverend Eric Zile as our new Rector at Trinity. Reverend Zile comes to us from the Baltimore, Maryland area where he grew up as a cradle Episcopalian. We look forward to Reverend Zile's arrival and to our mutual work with him as a congregation in the future.

There will be name tags in the back of the Church, please find yours and wear it so that Eric can learn everyone's name. Please place them back after Church so they can be used again.

Please Help Families With Back to School Supplies

Denise Butler has a Prison Ministry group at the Franklin County jail made up of all females; many are mothers. They are very concerned about their children starting school soon and not being able to provide for them. Denise has a list of items that they have requested -- both supplies and clothing. If anyone would like a list to fulfill or would like to donate money please call Denise at 850-670-1200 or email denise@thebutleragency.com. Thank you!
