End Your Summer on a High Note... Join Us for a BLUEGRASS EUCHARIST

As the summer vacation season comes to a close, a Bluegrass Eucharist will highlight Labor Day Weekend at Trinity Episcopal Church in Apalachicola. Bring a friend to join in this lively service with us on Sunday, September 2, at 10:30 am.

This special service will weave traditional bluegrass sounds with familiar hymns and will feature tunes that everyone can sing along to. Well-known Trinity and Apalachicola musicians, including Randy Mims, Carol Harris, Chris Clark, Ina Margaret Meyer, and Brooks Jones will perform and lead participants in a meaningful musical service.

Following the service, everyone is invited to an old fashioned end-of-summer picnic in Gorrie Square, in front of the Church, for hotdogs and 'burgers on the grill, along with chips, dessert, lemonade and iced tea.

AROUND THE CHURCH

State of the Parish -- A Quarterly Review

Sunday, September 9 at 9:15 am in Benedict Hall

Let's get together for a special Coffee Hour and 90-day update of our interim period. The Rev. Donna J. Gerold joined us in June as our Interim Priest, following Martha's retirement. At this session, Donna will offer an up-date and lead a discussion on what's happening so far, as well as items for us to consider, and what actions we will need to take over the next few months to put us in the best position possible for welcoming a new Priest next year. She will also listen to our questions and concerns as we move through this transition period.

This meeting will also provide an opportunity for participants in both Sunday services to enjoy a joint Coffee Hour. Additional update sessions will be held in December and next March.

As Seen on Sunday At Trinity

June Galloway, seven-year-old granddaughter of Susan & Dewitt Galloway, rang the bell on Sunday to mark the opening of our 10:30 service.

New Lay Eucharistic Ministers, John & Dee Crusoe are robed and ready to process at Sunday's service, along with Acolyte Paul McAbee and the Rev. Donna Gerold.

UPDATE: St. Ben's Preschool

Changes are in the wind for St. Benedict's Preschool. Tammy Farmer has been the teacher for the school since it was started five years ago. Due to a number of family commitments, she has resigned that position effective July 24th. Some of the parents of St. Ben's students have come together to ensure that the school will open on schedule this Fall. A new board has been formed that will be filled primarily with parents, and a new teacher has been hired for the coming year. While St. Ben's will no longer be a mission of Trinity Church, the vestry has agreed to allow the school to continue to lease the space in Benedict Hall for the next 10 months. Beginning in September of 2019, St. Ben's will officially close and students will be redirected to a new Montessorri school in Port St. Joe.

We wish to thank Tammy, her daughter Tammetrius, and all the volunteers that gave so much of their time and skills into this project. And, we hope for a bright future for all of the children that benefited from their time at St. Ben's.

There is plenty to share on Facebook; who hasn't shared a cute cat video, a clever quote, or a photo of an adorable grandchild. Now, there is one more thing that I'm asking you to share – our Trinity Facebook page.

Why? Because each of us has Facebook friends beyond our congregation and you know you want to share with them all our wonderful experiences and activities! By sharing our posts, you will help us reach many more people than we can ever reach with the Trinity page alone. For example, our page currently has 122 'Likes', yet, our post about Holy Week services and activities was shared by just a few of us and those shares yielded close to 300 views. Now that's a great return on an investment of just a few minutes of your time.

How?

Step 1: Make sure you 'like' our Facebook page; if you haven't 'liked' us yet, type in @trinityapalachicola in your Facebook search bar. When the pages opens up, click on 'Like'.

Step 2: Anytime you see a Trinity post in your Facebook feed, click on 'Like'. Now, some of your friends will see the post, and will know that you liked it.

Step 3: Next, click on 'Share'; then you will have a choice of simply 'Sharing' with your friends, or you can 'Write something about this'. When you 'Write', you can add a personal comment, which will appear at the top of the shared post. The personal touch is always best, and I bet you've done this many times with those cat videos.

There's more? Yes, you can also make a 'Comment' on the Trinity page. A quick note about your (positive, of course) experience at a service or event will let your friends know what you're up to, and why Trinity is an important part of your life.

Summer Birthday Celebrations

Lane Autrey enjoyed a birthday visit with her daughters Neville & Caroline in Nashville recently.

Penny's Worth Now Open After Summer Break

Penny's Worth is open and ready to serve the community, following its annual summer break. Board members Dot Hill & T McLain were on hand Saturday, August 4 to welcome shoppers, along with Nancy Luther, who worked the sales desk as many customers found treasures and necessities throughout the store.

SEPTEMBER 15th Diocesan Acolyte Festival

SAVE THE DATE! Diocese of the Central Gulf Coast will be celebrating a day all about honoring the ministry of acolytes, and will include workshops on different aspects of being an acolyte, Acolyte Olympics, catered lunch, and a Festival Eucharist with procession of participants. Join us for a day all about honoring the ministry of acolytes. The day will include a visit by Bishop Russell, workshops on different aspects of being an acolyte, catered lunch, and a Festival Eucharist with procession of participants. Cost is $20 per person to cover workshop materials, catered lunch, and festival t-shirt.

The event is being hosted by Christ Church Cathedral in Mobile, on September 15, from 8:30 am to 3 pm. To register go to The Episcopal Church of the Central Gulf Coast and click on the Event Registration tab and register.

OUR GREATER COMMUNITY

Wakulla 4-H'ers Contribute to Eastpoint Fire Fund

Well the 4-H club creed says it all. It pledges a promise to serve community, country and the world, with head, heart, hands and health.

Trinity Continues to Provide Help to Eastpoint Fire Victims

Trinity Church's Outreach's own Martha Snowden along with fire victim Amanda Hall, Tress Dameron and Jennifer Daniels of the Emergency Management Team, presented a check to Joe Taylor of Franklin's Promise. That now brings the total donated by Outreach to $8000.00!!

SUMMER TRAVEL & FAMILY FUN!

The best vacations are with the grandkids, as seen in all these smiles as Ralph & Susie Wagoner enjoy time with Ryan & Charlotte.

Share your summer travels and family visits with your friends and fellow parishioners. Just send photos, along with names and locations, to kaycarson@outlook.com. We want to see your smiles in future editions of our 'Bay View'!

HOLY FAMILY SENIOR CENTER

A special program, "Understanding Dementia: Improving Communication With Your Loved One", will be held on Wednesday August 22, 11 am - 1 pm at Holy Family Senior Center, 203 Dr. Frederick Humphries Boulevard in Apalachicola. Host for this program is

The Alzheimer's Project of Tallahassee, an organization that provides comfort, support, & assistance to persons with memory disorders and their caregivers across the Big Bend area. To reserve lunch, please RSVP at holyfamilyseniorcenter@gmail.com or 850-653-3134.
