

TRINITY Bay View

Apalachicola, Florida.....November 1, 2017

Dear Trinity folks and friends,

Our stewardship folks have been busy this fall, inviting members to share their stories of involvement and commitment to Trinity and our community on Sunday mornings. They have also provided a visual aid in the form of a map, and invited us to "pin down" our places of ministry. As expected, we are most densely concentrated in Apalachicola; however, our reach extends past Franklin and Gulf counties to encompass Wakulla, Leon and Bay counties, and also includes St. George Island, St. Vincent Island and Cape San Blas.

Many of us have received letters from our Senior Warden, Rennie Edwards, asking us to make a pledge to Trinity for 2018. Your commitment to God through the means of Trinity Church is a sign and symbol of your discipleship, just as much as those pins on the map.

I close with a piece shared by Denise Butler during our Education for Ministry (EfM) worship this week:

*Broken People Praise
Grateful People Gather
Healthy People Grow
Loved People Care
Christian People Go
God Makes the Way*

Blessings and peace on your way,

AROUND THE CHURCH

Trinity Marketplace

Saturday November 4, 2017

We have had a wonderful response for kitchen goods, art and handcrafts for out Trinity Marketplace. Please do not hesitate to bring something even if you have not yet signed up. Thanks to all of you who are participating in many helpful ways.

To get your goods to the Marketplace:

Thursday, November 2 from 1:00 to 4:00 pm please bring nonperishable items if possible. Cards will be on the tables for you to put your name, your item and your suggested price.

Friday, November 3 from 10:00 am to 3:00 pm please bring nonperishable and edible goodies that are not fragile or extremely perishable. Please put plastic wrap or use baggies for edible goodies.

Saturday, November 4 from 8:00 to 9:45 am you may bring your cakes, pies, etc. It will be difficult to get to Benedict Hall after the parade starts at 10:00 am and we will open at 10:00 am. One of the handicapped parking places will be marked FOR DELIVERY ONLY. Hopefully you can get your baked items to us early.

Please identify your baked goods by "what it is" and "who made it". Cards will be provided.

Again, thanks for your enthusiasm!!! -- Patti McCartney

Holy Baptism at Trinity

Please join us for the baptism of Wallace, Camden, Wyatt & Brantley on Sunday November 5 at 9:00 am here at Trinity Church. They are the grandchildren of Craig & Suzanne Besore, the great-grandchildren of Dorothy (Dot) Hill, and are the 7th generation of Porters & Raney's to be baptized at Trinity.

WE GET BY WITH A LITTLE HELP FROM OUR FRIENDS

As you know, I had a stroke last year. That's a potentially life-altering or, in many cases, a life-ending event. The fact that I survived and recovered is due in no small part to the people of Trinity.

I have said, and will continue to say, that I have never been part of any group that so loved one another. We support, we encourage, and we love each other. I am thankful for that, and for each of you.

I particularly appreciate the help and encouragement of Randy Mims. Randy's Tai Chi class has returned to me one of the most significant things a stroke takes - your balance.

As we discuss the many facets of stewardship, I say we each embody that concept every day and, for that, I will be eternally grateful.

-- Paul McAbee

Communications update:

The Sunday bulletins are posted on our website each Thursday, so you can see a preview of the upcoming services and confirm whether you have an active role. If you are a lector, you can note the references for the readings and preview them. Just go to www.trinityapalachicola.org and click on News & Events. On this page, you'll also find details on current special events & activities, as well as our calendar and current editions of the Bay View.

Also, if you use Facebook, be sure to 'share' Trinity's posts when you see them. By sharing our news and events with your friends, you are helping to provide a wider audience for the good works of our beloved Trinity.
